● ABOUT ME

Results-oriented learner with curiosity in coding languages like R ,C and Julia, alongside proficiency in Excel and Power BI. My technical acumen is complemented by strong critical thinking and analytical skills. With a successful internship under my belt, I've demonstrated the practical application of my skills in real-world scenarios. Known for effective communication, I bridge the gap between technical complexities and non-technical stakeholders. Eager to contribute coding prowess, analytical insights, and collaborative strengths to drive success in dynamic environments.
